

HENRY GEORGE, TOO, PASSED AWAY DURING CAMPAIGN FOR MAYOR

Gaynor's Sudden Death Recalls That of Candidate for Office in 1897 Election.

Henry George's sudden death in the midst of a municipal campaign has but one parallel in the history of New York City politics—that of Henry George, candidate for Mayor on the Jeffersonian Democratic ticket, who died on Oct. 21, 1897. Mr. George was opposed in his campaign by both Gov. Benjamin F. Swanwick and Robert A. Van Wyck, the Tammany nominee. In that race Mr. George, then a Justice of the Supreme Court, supported George.

The campaign was almost ended, and it had been a crying one on Mr. George. He had gone into the race against the advice of physicians and friends. He went to the stump and was subjected to the wearing process of a bitterly fought campaign. At the end of a particularly severe day, Mr. George retired to his apartment in the old Union Square Hotel. Early in the morning he had a fatal stroke of apoplexy.

As in the present campaign, there had been talk of a mediation between the warring elements. It was suggested that the factions of Democracy get together, with William J. Bryan, then the new leader of the National Democracy, as mediator. But George declared that he stood for the only Democracy, and there could be no compromise.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 20 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you dyed your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

point. It embraces reproductions of the models of *Bernard,

Tomorrow, Saturday, the 13th, our initial presentation of Women's Coats and Wraps in the new Paris modes for Fall

This is a season of materials. Styles have not changed so much as fabrics, save for their huge, capacious sleeves, which typify, perhaps best of all, the flowing unrestraint of the outer fashions. But in materials there is marked change and marked originality—novelty textures that are decidedly new, and fascinating discoveries in the alchemy of color. In brief, the best of Paris coat fashions by day and by night. Fourth floor

Prices range from $10 to $225
in the following materials and all colors:

embraces every style variation in youthful fashions. One model in particular will probably strike the young man's fancy as much as it does ours. It is a straight front coat, with waisted pockets and high cut side buckle waistcoat, and the trousers are trim as poplars. Very effective in rough fabrics. Sizes 30 to 36. Ages 14 to 20.

This is Professor Challenger, the principal running in the Magazine Section of the Sunday World.
